Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy

In order to remain in the subject's immediate marketing area date sold was set back one year. The market has remained stable during this time frame so no adjustments were necessary for value changes. All properties used in the report closely resemble the subject in most all areas of comparison with only slight differences and slight adjustments necessary. All properties are located in the immediate vicinity of the subject or other similar style southeast neighborhoods equal to the subject's.

Addendum: Report Purpose

Market Approach and Market Time

The Market Approach of this report, as established by the customer, is: Fair Market Price. (See definition below.) The Marketing Time as specified by the customer is Typical. (See definition below.)

Definitions:

Fair Market Price A price at which the property would sell between a willing buyer and a willing seller neither being compelled by undue pressure and both having reasonable knowledge of relevant facts.

Distressed Price A price at which the property would sell between a willing buyer and a seller acting under duress.

Marketing Time The amount of time the property is exposed to a pool of prospective buyers before going into contract.

The customer either specifies the number of days, requests a marketing time that is typical to the subject's market area and/or requests an abbreviated marketing time.

Typical for Local Market The estimated time required to adequately expose the subject property to the market resulting in a contract of sale.
