Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy

This reports final list price value is greater than current MLS listed price for the following reasons: Subject is currently pending sale as a short sale listing after only 40 DOM. Based on previous 2019 MLS photos, subject has granite counter tops, tile/carpet floors and typical fixtures- which is typical for area models. There is short sale approval and restriction verbiage in the MLS commentary that often times creates an artificially suspended pricing cap that does not coincide with typical area standard sales regardless of external influencing factors and subjects physical condition. Recent sales, listings and subjects recent activity indicate that subject may be under-priced. Sales 1 and 2 were given the most consideration due to having the most combined similar value defining features (both model matches to subject). Within 1 mile of the subject a total of 5 comparable listings were located. Of these listings, all are fair market.
