Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
6902 La Salle Dr, Austin, Texas 78723- I did not use this comp, it is over 3 months old. It was underpriced for the market and went under contract within 4 days, 5 months ago. The current market has elevated since then because the listing shortage in our area has increased but demand has also increased. Homes sold over 3 months ago are not relevant to our market current activity. 6811 Langston Dr, Austin, Texas 78723- I did not use this comp because it sold fair condition. Mls comments state "Price reflects adjustment for repairs needed". The sold date is over 7 months ago, The current market has elevated since then because the listing shortage in our area has increased but demand has also increased. Homes sold over 3 months ago are not relevant to our market current activity. 6631 Greensboro Dr- With the gla of this comps is superior to the subject by 148sqft, and it sold for less than the value I am suggesting for the subject in this bpo. I do not consider it a good comp for this report because it is located 400ft from a major highway and the suggested comps backyard has a large commercial building located directly behind it. For these reasons, I would consider it inferior to the subject and not relevant to this report in light of better comps availble near the subject. I went back 6 months, out in distance 1 mile and was able to find comps which fit the bpo requirements. The comps used are the best possible currently available comps within 1 mile and the adjustments are sufficient for this area to account for the differences in the subject and comps.

Clear Capital Quality Assurance Comments Addendum
