| Subject property should be priced near mid low range of competing listings due to oversupply of listings. This property would be expected to sell near high range of adjusted recently closed sales with 90 days on market as recently closed sales have had low days on market time. Suggest repair to allow FHA financing. |                    |                       |
