Listing Comments Why the comparable listing is superior or inferior to the subject.

Listing 1 It's inferior because it's smaller and older and not in gated 55+ community. There are none available in subjects exact neighborhood which makes it even more desirable

Listing 2 There weren't any closer that were more comparable so had to choose this one which is clearly higher priced than subject. This one has double the amount of lot size, is two story with 4 bedrooms and is same age with these benefits. I still think it's priced a bit high and that's why they've already lowered the price after 15 days.

Listing 3 Same as listing two only this one does not have as big of yard but it is much bigger

Reasons for Adjustments Why the comparable sale is superior or inferior to the subject.

Sold 1 Covid happened right when it was listed, the market is better now. Also subject property is a little larger

Sold 2 This one is bigger but I still think the market approaching is better than when this one sold and would make up for it being smaller than this one. Spring/summer yields better prices than Christmas time when this one sold

Sold 3 This one actually looks the most outdated of the three but it sold for the most... and it sold around Christmas time like the last one

Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
If inside of house is in as good of shape as comps and outside of house, many repairs shouldn't be needed. It's also a 55+ community so they usually aren't as picky about having the latest and greatest new trend of flooring in their house... just my thoughts. The community was really nice and gated which were my beneficial factors, gated and 55+. Another plus to this listing is that there aren't any others available in this community at this time! Or if there are they are not pulling up on our mls, not sure if that have an office that sales them or not.
