Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
Listing comp 3 and sold comp 2 are the most similar to the subject. All listing comps are under contract. Listing comp 2 is the odd ball out of the group of comps. It was priced $10,000 less than the competition and it has a full finished basement. The only comp with a basement but it was priced 10k less than all others. Either the listing agent priced it poorly, or the owner wanted a super quick sell. The market in Clarksville has been steadily improving but now it has exploded into a super boom this March. Homes are going under contract in hours and getting multiple offers. Currently almost all are selling well over ask price. Pricing this at $249,000 will move it immediately. People are even agreeing to pay thousands toward appraisal gaps which is driving the market up rapidly. Pricing it any lower makes no sense.
