Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
The subject property is located in a neighborhood with easy access to the highway. Most yards and home exteriors appear to be in good order with only minor maintenance neglect. The area has above average market demand. The market is stable with a 6 months supply of homes available for purchase. The majority of homes on the market are fair market properties. Demand is moderate. The subject was strategically priced mid-market because all homes were from the same/similar subdivisions, and were of similar GLA, age, style, and lot utility. No extraordinary characteristics were noted to price low or high. Subject is located in a suburban area with limited number of similar comps. Proximity is expanded in order to obtain comps. There are not enough similar characteristics as the subject. Due to this, it is necessary to used comps with variances of subject characteristics such as GLA, Year built, beds, baths, lot size and Sale date. However, adjustments were added for all variances made in the report.
