Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
To determine the market value for the subject all three of the sold comparables were equally evaluated after some minor adjustments were made, including a location adjustment to sold two and three as they both offer typical residential locations, while the subject and sold one back up to a busy four lane road. Please note without a single complex listing at the present time, it was necessary to expand the search radius up to three miles to locate active townhome listings.
