Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
Subject is in a small suburban to rural town where all ages range however value does not change based on age range. Subject is in an area where all homes have different sized lots, however there is no value change for homes under 10 acres. Distance had to be expanded in order to find comparables based on location. Had to slightly extend guidelines in order to find comps. It was necessary to use comps over 3 months old as they are relevant to the market area.
