Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy

I went back 3 months and out 1 mile and select 3 sale comps and 1 list comp within subject subdivision and 2 list comps from competing subdivision (List #2 and List #3). Search criteria was relaxed for Age bracket due to lack of sufficient comps within subject bracket (List #1. List #3 and Sale #3). Condition criteria was also relaxed due to lack of sufficient comps within subject brackets. This is common with this age bracket in this area as both owners and consumers seek modern updates. Appropriate adjustments were made. After adjustments and analysis, List #2 and Sale #1 received the most weight in the final analysis having the same condition and within subject subdivision. Comps used are the best possible currently available comps and the adjustments are sufficient to account for the differences in subject and comparables.
