Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy

Subject is a 2 story home in a neighborhood of primarily ranch style homes. It was necessary to expand the radius & relax age to produce comps that are similar design and finished square footage. Adjustments made for the age and square footage is sufficient for the area. All comps are located in the Subject's market area and school district. Preference was given to comps that are not ranch style. All Sold comps as adjusted provide a likely reliable indication of Subject's value in the current market.
