Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
Shortage of comps, it was necessary to expand the radius to produce similar comps but all comps are located in the Subject's market area and school district. The comps selected for this report are the most similar model/design available and bracketed within the desired criteria. Most weight placed on GLA & total bedroom/bathroom count. All comps are similar age, build quality & features and all Sold Comps as adjusted provide a likely reliable indication on Subject's value in the current market. No adjust for age or acreage as there is no marketable difference.
