Listing Comments Why the comparable listing is superior or inferior to the subject.

- Listing 1 Condition seems fair, very dated; seems inferior to the subject, which is perceived as being average to good. Under contract/pending sale without reductions and within overall area marketing times (90 days or less is deemed adequate to generate accepted offer for subject's area and price range, or price reduction probably needed).
- Listing 2 Both condition and overall quality of construction seem average for the area and comparable to the subject, but the market is sale driven, sold comps are the focus in establishing value. Under contract/pending sale without reductions and within overall area marketing times.
- Listing 3 Condition seems average and comparable to the subject, overall quality of construction seems average and comparable to the subject. Remains active with 1 reduction, remains within overall area marketing times.

Sales Price	$800,000	$800,000
30 Day Price	$760,000	--
Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
Available inventory remains limited and interest rates remain relatively low despite recent increase; these factors are driving and sustaining demand. The market is sale driven, and the sold comps are used to establish the subject value; sold comps were considered up to 1 year back due to proximity concerns (the market has not been rapidly changing but gradually appreciating in the last year; however, appreciation is now slowing due to interest rate increases, inflationary pressures and severe lack of inventory and affordability for average end-user buyers). The subject seems similar to all the sold comps in the report in combined characteristics. Therefore, the subject's final projected value is bracketed based on the overall adjusted sold data. Note 1; quick sale is interpreted to mean all cash sale, it is not known what incentive would be required for a cash sale; for the subject's price bracket 5 % approx is suggested, but is an estimate only, financed offers might be generated within 30 days without any incentive, based on overall market activity.
