^{*} Listing 1 is the most comparable listing to the subject.

Listing Comments Why the comparable listing is superior or inferior to the subject.

- Listing 1 Similar neighborhood and style of home, although comp is newer and has better landscaping making it a bit superior. Most like comp available.
- Listing 2 Similar style. age and neighborhood setup. Has less square footage but an extra bedroom, I did not make adjustments as the extra bedroom is very small and more of an office.
- Listing 3 Comp is new construction but similar style, setup and neighborhood. Comp is superior only because it is brand new.

Reasons for Adjustments Why the comparable sale is superior or inferior to the subject.

- Sold 1 Most like comp on recent sold market, same style, similar age, has smaller lot making it a bit inferior but not enough to adjust.
- Sold 2 Same style and age as subject but in a bit better condition on exterior, although the lot in smaller. No adjustments made for size or lot due to condition equaling out any adjustment needed.
- Sold 3 Similar in style, neighborhood but newer in age. Lot size is smaller but age of home and exterior condition even out any adjustment needed.

Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy

Homes with similar square footage are taking longer to sell at or above the $400k mark. Pricing under will get maximum attention quickly and possible multiple offers. Cleaning up the outside would be required to get the best price, does not have good curb appeal as is.

Clear Capital Quality Assurance Comments Addendum

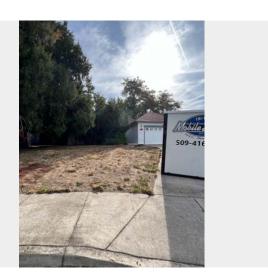

Reviewer's The broker's as-is conclusion reflects the market for the subject. Comps are within a reasonable distance, relatively current, and accurately reflect Notes the subject's defining characteristics. Thus, the as-is conclusion appears to be adequately supported.
