Comments Regarding Pricing Strategy
Searched subdivision and zip code for properties similar to subject in age, condition, beds, baths, and square footage. Keeping proximity heavily weighted criteria. Showing subject in average condition for neighborhood. Fair market property to sell in a normal marketing period. As Is with no seller concessions. Based value on active and solds and adjusted for differences. Due to the limited inventory, expanded age for AC1, AC2, SC1, SC2 and SC3. These are currently the best comps available for subject property. The adjustments are sufficient to account for differences. There are no external influences affecting the marketing or value of this property
