Analysis of prior sale or transfer history of the subject property and comparable sales The appraiser assumes that the Title is good and marketable and therefore will not render any opinions about the Title. The property is appraised on the basis of it being under responsible ownership. The marketing history of the subject was researched for at least three years. The subject last sold through local MLS 06/25/2024 for $757,000. No personal property included in the final estimate of value. Sale 3 had a deed of trust transfer 12/22/2022.

RECONCILIATION

The Cost Approach to value is not used because it is less reliable in that there are very limited land sales to derive an indicated site value. The Income Approach to value is not used because of the lack of sales of rental homes and the lack of rental data since properties of this type are generally purchased for the personal use of the buyer. The analysis and conclusions developed in this report are credible in the context of the intended use of this appraisal without the use of the cost or Income Approaches to value. Full weight is given to the Sales Comparable Analysis as it best reflects current market conditions and values.

This appraisal is made "as is," subject to completion per plans and specifications on the basis of a hypothetical condition that the improvements have been completed, subject to the following repairs or alterations on the basis of a hypothetical condition that the repairs or alterations have been completed, or subject to the following required inspection based on the extraordinary assumption that the condition or deficiency does not require alteration or repair:

Based on a visual inspection of the exterior areas of the subject property from at least the street, defined scope of work, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and appraiser's certification, my (our) opinion of the market value, as defined, of the real property that is the subject of this report is $ 765,000 , as of 06/28/2024 , which is the date of inspection and the effective date of this appraisal.

Provide adequate information for the lender/client to replicate your cost figures and calculations.
Support for the opinion of site value (summary of comparable land sales or other methods for estimating site value) The purpose of the appraisal was a market value indicator. The site valuation was not relevant tot he assignment conditions. Any conclusion of the site will require an appraisal of land sales and none within the same marketing area with similar characteristics were located in the MLS data. Site valuation is not considered relevant nor necessary to the assignment conditions. Site value was determined by the extraction method. Cost approach does not take into consideration Entrepreneurial Profit.

Exterior-Only Inspection Residential Appraisal Report

This report form is designed to report an appraisal of a one-unit property or a one-unit property with an accessory unit; including a unit in a planned unit development (PUD). This report form is not designed to report an appraisal of a manufactured home or a unit in a condominium or cooperative project.

This appraisal report is subject to the following scope of work, intended use, intended user, definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. Modifications, additions, or deletions to the intended use, intended user, definition of market value, or assumptions and limiting conditions are not permitted. The appraiser may expand the scope of work to include any additional research or analysis necessary based on the complexity of this appraisal assignment. Modifications or deletions to the certifications are also not permitted. However, additional certifications that do not constitute material alterations to this appraisal report, such as those required by law or those related to the appraiser's continuing education or membership in an appraisal organization, are permitted.

SCOPE OF WORK: The scope of work for this appraisal is defined by the complexity of this appraisal assignment and the reporting requirements of this appraisal report form, including the following definition of market value, statement of assumptions and limiting conditions, and certifications. The appraiser must, at a minimum: (1) perform a visual inspection of the exterior areas of the subject property from at least the street, (2) inspect the neighborhood, (3) inspect each of the comparable sales from at least the street, (4) research, verify, and analyze data from reliable public and/or private sources, and (5) report his or her analysis, opinions, and conclusions in this appraisal report.

The appraiser must be able to obtain adequate information about the physical characteristics (including, but not limited to, condition, room count, gross living area, etc.) of the subject property from the exterior-only inspection and reliable public and/or private sources to perform this appraisal. The appraiser should use the same type of data sources that he or she uses for comparable sales such as, but not limited to, multiple listing services, tax and assessment records, prior inspections, appraisal files, information provided by the property owner, etc.

INTENDED USE: The intended use of this appraisal report is for the lender/client to evaluate the property that is the subject of this appraisal for a mortgage finance transaction.

INTENDED USER: The intended user of this appraisal report is the lender/client.

DEFINITION MARKET VALUE: The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby: (1) buyer and seller are typically motivated; (2) both parties are well informed or well advised, and each acting in what he or she considers his or her own best interest; (3) a reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market; (4) payment is made in terms of cash in U. S. dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and (5) the price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions* granted by anyone associated with the sale.

*Adjustments to the comparables must be made for special or creative financing or sales concessions. No adjustments are necessary for those costs which are normally paid by sellers as a result of tradition or law in a market area; these costs are readily identifiable since the seller pays these costs in virtually all sales transactions. Special or creative financing adjustments can be made to the comparable property by comparisons to financing terms offered by a third party institutional lender that is not already involved in the property or transaction. Any adjustment should not be calculated on a mechanical dollar for dollar cost of the financing or concession but the dollar amount of any adjustment should approximate the market's reaction to the financing or concessions based on the appraiser's judgment.

STATEMENT OF ASSUMPTIONS AND LIMITING CONDITIONS: The appraiser's certification in this report is subject to the following assumptions and limiting conditions:

1. The appraiser will not be responsible for matters of a legal nature that affect either the property being appraised or the title to it, except for information that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing this appraisal. The appraiser assumes that the title is good and marketable and will not render any opinions about the title.
2. The appraiser has examined the available flood maps that are provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (or other data sources) and has noted in this appraisal report whether any portion of the subject site is located in an identified Special Flood Hazard Area. Because the appraiser is not a surveyor, he or she makes no guarantees, express or implied, regarding this determination.
3. The appraiser will not give testimony or appear in court because he or she made an appraisal of the property in question, unless specific arrangements to do so have been made beforehand, or as otherwise required by law.
4. The appraiser has noted in this appraisal report any adverse conditions (such as needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, etc.) observed during the inspection of the subject property or that he or she became aware of during the research involved in performing this appraisal. Unless otherwise stated in this appraisal report, the appraiser has no knowledge of any hidden or unapparent physical deficiencies or adverse conditions of the property (such as, but not limited to, needed repairs, deterioration, the presence of hazardous wastes, toxic substances, adverse environmental conditions, etc.) that would make the property less valuable, and has assumed that there are no such conditions and makes no guarantees or warranties, express or implied. The appraiser will not be responsible for any such conditions that do exist or for any engineering or testing that might be required to discover whether such conditions exist. Because the appraiser is not an expert in the field of environmental hazards, this appraisal report must not be considered as an environmental assessment of the property.
5. The appraiser has based his or her appraisal report and valuation conclusion for an appraisal that is subject to satisfactory completion, repairs, or alterations on the assumption that the completion, repairs, or alterations of the subject property will be performed in a professional manner.

Adjustments were made for differences in bathroom count, living area, car storage, bedroom count, and lot size.

GLA: Gross living area was adjusted $90 per square foot, over 100 square feet. Compared sales analysis indicates a GLA adjustment of $80 to $135 per square foot.

Bathroom: Bathrooms were adjusted $20,000 per full bath, $10,000 per half bath.

Bedroom: Sales were adjusted $20,000 per bedroom.

Quality of Construction: Adjustments were based on GLA and quality of materials.

Condition: Condition Adjustments are based on GLA and quality of materials.

Lot Size: Adjusted for lot size greater than 1,000sqft.

Age: Sales were not adjusted for age, but overall condition.

Garage: Adjusted $15,000 per enclosed car space.

Sales were adjusted based on compared sales analysis (historical sales analysis, conversations with real estate agents, sales that bracket the subject within the report and estimated cost of improvements).

Market data indicates that within the subject's market area, homes sell on average in 1 to 3 months. There is also currently a shortage of listings within the subject's market area. Currently mortgage rates have increased above 6%, and longer marketing times and price reductions have been noted in the subject's market area.

Sales 1 and 2 are located within a superior market area, chosen due to being sales.

Sale 1 was chosen due to time of sale and bedroom/bathroom count. Sale 1 was adjusted for condition, due to updated bathroom.

Sale 2 was chosen due to time of sale. Sale 2 was adjusted for condition, due to being renovated throughout.

Sale 3 closed over 6 months past and was chosen due to no noted updating or remodeling.

Sale 4 was chosen due to time of sale and being the subject.

Due to shortage of listings, NO listing/pending sale could be provided. There is currently no comparable listing within the subjects market area.

All sales were chosen due to being the most recent closed sales within the subject's market area. These types of adjustments are generally acceptable when appraising such properties. The comparables as adjusted, support the final estimate of value. Many comparables were considered in preparing this appraisal. The 4 comparable sales utilized were considered to be the most comparable and the best indicators of the value for the subject. All comparables were considered in the final opinion of value. Sale 1 was given more weight, due to time of sale. Sale 4 was also given weight, due to being the subject and closing escrow within the past 0-90 days. The final opinion of value is within the indicated range of the comparables.

TRENDS ANALYSIS: Unless otherwise noted in this report, the marketing time and marketability of the subject property is similar to the neighborhood described in the report and it can be expected to perform in a similar manner in the market if offered for sale provided the property is properly priced and marketed in a competent manner.

The Statement issued by the Appraisal Standards Board is, in part, as follows:

"Exposure time may be defined as follows: The estimated length of time the property interest being appraised would have been offered on the market prior to the hypothetical consummation of a sale at market value on the effective date of the appraisal; a retrospective estimate based upon an analysis of past events assuming a competitive and open market.

Exposure time is different for various types of real estate and under various market conditions. It is noted that the overall concept of reasonable exposure encompasses not only adequate, sufficient and reasonable time but also adequate, sufficient and reasonable effort. This statement focuses on the time component.

HIGHEST AND BEST USE: The subject highest and best use of the subject is a single family residence as improved and as vacant land. The four criteria that highest and best use must meet are legal permissibility, physical possibility, financial feasibility, and maximum productivity.

THREE APPROACHES TO VALUE: The appraiser has made reasonable effort to apply the three recognized approaches to value. In many cases, the Income Approach may not be considered a reliable approach due to a lack of viable rental data. The use of the Income Approach to value will only be used:

1. At the request of the client for non-owner occupied units.
2. When sufficient market evidence exists in a neighborhood to indicate that rental properties and/or investor purchases are typical and measurable and that their analysis adds to the relevancy and reliability of the appraisal process.

EXPOSURE TIME: USPAP requires that an estimate of reasonable exposure time be made in the performance of an appraisal where the value being sought is "as is".

HAZARDS: The appraiser is not a home inspector or environmental inspector. The Appraiser provides an opinion of value. The appraisal report does not guarantee that the property is free of defects or environmental problems. The Appraiser performs an inspection of visible and accessible areas only. Mold may be present in areas the Appraiser cannot see. This report should not be relied upon to disclose any conditions present in/on the subject property. If one or more of the parties have a concern regarding hazards, the Appraiser suggests a professional home inspection or environmental inspection by an appropriately licensed contractor.

The appraiser assumes that there are no hidden or unapparent conditions of the property, subsoil, or structures, which would render it more or less valuable. The appraiser assumes no responsibility for such conditions, or for engineering which might be required to discover such factors.

If the improvements, or a portion of the improvements, were constructed prior to 1978, there may be a presence of lead-based paint.

Unless otherwise state in this report, the existence of hazardous material, which may or may not be present on the property, was not observed by the appraiser. The appraiser has no knowledge of the existence of such materials on or in the property. The appraiser, however, is not expert in the field of hazardous materials and is not qualified to detect such substances. The presence of substances such as asbestos, urea-formaldehyde foam insulation or other potentially hazardous materials may affect the value of the property. The value estimate is predicated on the assumption that there is no such material on or in the property that would cause a loss in value. No responsibility is assumed for any such conditions, or for any expertise or engineering knowledge required to discover them. The client is urged to retain an expert in this field, if desired.

This appraisal should not be relied upon as to whether or not environmental hazards actually exist on the property. The appraiser is not a home inspector. This report should not be relied upon to disclose any conditions present in the subject property. The appraisal report does not guarantee that the property is free of defects.

SCOPE OF WORK:

The appraiser is not a home inspector and this appraisal report is not a home inspection, the appraiser only performed a visual observation of accessible areas and the appraisal report cannot be relied upon to disclose conditions and/or defects in the property." The following steps were taken in arriving at the final estimate of value included in the appraisal report of the subject property:

The improvements have been observed from the exterior for quality, condition, amenities. The subject's neighborhood has been researched for recent sales of similar properties utilizing the following data sources; the local multiple listing service, county assessor's record and previous appraisal in-house files. After extensively researching and analyzing dozens of potential comparable's four sales have been utilized in the sale comparison approach and are adjusted for significant differences from the subject. The appraiser contacted the listing agents of each of the comparable sales to confirm the data presented on the MLS and public records and to ascertain the terms of each sale. The sales comparison approach is given the greatest weight. The cost was not developed and/or given less weight due to unreliable land value, need contractor bids for cost of construction and due to data and difficulty determining the depreciation. Land value was determined by extraction method. The income approach was not developed given less weight due to most homes in this area are owner occupied and buyers do not are not typically purchase owner occupied homes for their income earning capacity.

The appraiser has not identified any borrower, purchaser, or seller as an intended user of this appraisal and no such party should use or rely on this appraisal for any purpose, and the appraiser shall have no liability to any such parties or any other party not identified by the appraiser as an intended user. Parties other than the client and intended user(s) identified in this report are advised to obtain an appraisal from an appraiser of their own choosing if they require a valuation for their own use. Requirements - Condition and Quality Ratings Usage

Appraisers must utilize the following standardized condition and quality ratings within the appraisal report.

Condition Ratings and Definitions

C1

The improvements have been recently constructed and have not been previously occupied. The entire structure and all components are new and the dwelling features no physical depreciation.

Note: Newly constructed improvements that feature recycled or previously used materials and/or components can be considered new dwellings provided that the dwelling is placed on a 100 percent new foundation and the recycled materials and the recycled components have been rehabilitated/remanufactured into like-new condition. Improvements that have not been previously occupied are not considered "new" if they have significant physical depreciation (that is, newly constructed dwellings that have been vacant for an extended period of time without adequate maintenance or upkeep).

C2

The improvements feature no deferred maintenance, little or no physical depreciation, and require no repairs. Virtually all building components are new or have been recently repaired, refinished, or rehabilitated. All outdated components and finishes have been updated and/or replaced with components that meet current standards. Dwellings in this category are either almost new or have been recently completely renovated and are similar in condition to new construction.

Note: The improvements represent a relatively new property that is well maintained with no deferred maintenance and little or no physical depreciation, or an older property that has been recently completely renovated.

C3

The improvements are well maintained and feature limited physical depreciation due to normal wear and tear. Some components, but not every major building component, may be updated or recently rehabilitated. The structure has been well maintained.

Note: The improvement is in its first-cycle of replacing short-lived building components (appliances, floor coverings, HVAC, etc.) and is being well maintained. It's estimated effective age is less than its actual age. It also may reflect a property in which the majority of short-lived building components have been replaced but not to the level of a complete renovation.

C4

The improvements feature some minor deferred maintenance and physical deterioration due to normal wear and tear. The dwelling has been adequately maintained and requires only minimal repairs to building components/mechanical systems and cosmetic repairs. All major building components have been adequately maintained and are functionally adequate.

Note: The estimated effective age may be close to or equal to its actual age. It reflects a property in which some of the short-lived building components have been replaced, and some short-lived building components are at or near the end of their physical life expectancy; however, they still function adequately. Most minor repairs have been addressed on an ongoing basis resulting in an adequately maintained property.

C5

The functional utility and overall livability are somewhat diminished due to condition, but the dwelling remains useable and functional as a residence.

Note: Some significant repairs are needed to the improvements due to the lack of adequate maintenance. It reflects a property in which many of its short-lived building components are at the end of or have exceeded their physical life expectancy but remain functional.

Quality Ratings and Definitions

Q1

Dwellings with this quality rating are usually unique structures that are individually designed by an architect for a specified user. Such residences typically are constructed from detailed architectural plans and specifications and feature an exceptionally high level of workmanship and exceptionally high-grade materials throughout the interior and exterior of the structure. The design features exceptionally high-quality exterior refinements and ornamentation, and exceptionally high-quality interior refinements. The workmanship, materials, and finishes throughout the dwelling are exceptionally high quality.

Q2

Dwellings with this quality rating are often custom designed for construction on an individual property owner's site. However, dwellings in this quality grade are also found in high-quality tract developments featuring residences constructed from individual plans or from highly modified or upgraded plans. The design features detailed, high-quality exterior ornamentation, high-quality interior refinements, and detail. The workmanship, materials, and finishes throughout the dwelling are generally of high or very high quality.

Q3

Dwellings with this quality rating are residences of higher quality built from individual or readily available designer plans in above-standard residential tract developments or on an individual property owner's site. The design includes significant exterior ornamentation and interiors that are well finished. The workmanship exceeds acceptable standards and many materials and finishes throughout the dwelling have been upgraded from "stock" standards.

Q4

Dwellings with this quality rating meet or exceed the requirements of applicable building codes. Standard or modified standard building plans are utilized and the design includes adequate fenestration and some exterior ornamentation and interior refinements. Materials, workmanship, finish, and equipment are of stock or builder grade and may feature some upgrades.

Q5

Dwellings with this quality rating feature economy of construction and basic functionality as main considerations. Such dwellings feature a plain design using readily available or basic floor plans featuring minimal fenestration and basic finishes with minimal exterior ornamentation and limited interior detail. These dwellings meet minimum building codes and are constructed with inexpensive, stock materials with limited refinements and upgrades.

Q6

Dwellings with this quality rating are of basic quality and lower cost; some may not be suitable for year-round occupancy. Such dwellings are often built with simple plans or without plans, often utilizing the lowest quality building materials. Such dwellings are often built or expanded by persons who are professionally unskilled or possess only minimal construction skills. Electrical, plumbing, and other mechanical systems and equipment may be minimal or non-existent. Older dwellings may feature one or more substandard or non-conforming additions to the original structure.

Requirements - Definitions of Not Updated, Updated and Remodeled

Not Updated

Little or no updating or modernization. This description includes, but is not limited to, new homes.

Residential properties of fifteen years of age or less often reflect an original condition with no updating, if no major components have been replaced or updated. Those over fifteen years of age are also considered not updated if the appliances, fixtures, and finishes are predominantly dated. An area that is 'Not Updated' may still be well maintained and fully functional, and this rating does not necessarily imply deferred maintenance or physical/functional deterioration.

Updated

The area of the home has been modified to meet current market expectations. These modifications are limited in terms of both scope and cost.

An updated area of the home should have an improved look and feel, or functional utility. Changes that constitute updates include refurbishment and/or replacing components meet existing market expectations. Updates do not include significant alterations to the existing structure.

Remodeled

Significant finish and/or structural changes have been made that increase utility and appeal through complete replacement and/or expansion.

A remodeled area reflects fundamental changes that include multiple alterations. These alterations may include some or all of the following: replacement of a major component (cabinet(s), bathtub, or bathroom tile), relocation of plumbing/gas fixtures/appliances, significant structural alterations (relocating walls, and/or the addition of square footage). This would include a complete gutting and rebuild.

Explanation of Bathroom Count

Three-quarter baths are counted as a full bath in all cases. Quarter baths (baths that feature only a toilet) are not included in the bathroom count. The number of full and half baths is reported by separating the two values using a period, where the full bath count is represented to the left of the period and the half bath count is represented to the right of the period.

Example:

3.2 indicates three full baths and two half baths.
